

Orientation Courses Description

What: 5 web-delivered modules for orientation of public health nurses covering statutory requirements for public health nursing services in Wisconsin

Who: Public health nurses, public health nurse managers, nurse educators, nursing students, and other public health staff

Why: Gain knowledge and skills needed to address new and emerging issues in public health nursing

How:

Register for courses on the TRAIN website:

<https://wi.train.org>

Search for courses by course number or by title:

WPHN Orientation

Contact your Regional Public Health Nursing Consultant:

Project Partners:

University of Wisconsin-Madison,
School of Nursing

Wisconsin Division of Public Health
(DPH), Regional Public Health Nursing
Consultants

Partners at DPH and Local Health Departments

This project was funded through a grant from HRSA, Division of Nursing,
DHHS/HRSA, D11HP07731

Wisconsin Public Health Nurse Orientation Courses

A joint project of

UW-Madison, School of Nursing Linking Education and Practice for Excellence in Public Health Nursing (LEAP) Project
and the State of Wisconsin
Department of Health Services
Division of Public Health

Wisconsin Public Health Nursing Orientation Courses

Course I (1016058): Wisconsin's Public Health Nursing Practice Model

- 9 major components of Wisconsin's Public Health Nursing (PHN) Practice Model
- examples of PHN practice
- utility of the model to guide PHN practice

Estimated time: 1.5 hours.

Course III (1016119): Services to Prevent Other Diseases

- role of the public health nurse in chronic disease and injury prevention
- community health improvement plans
- resources available.

Estimated time: 1 hour.

Course IV (1016120): Health Promotion

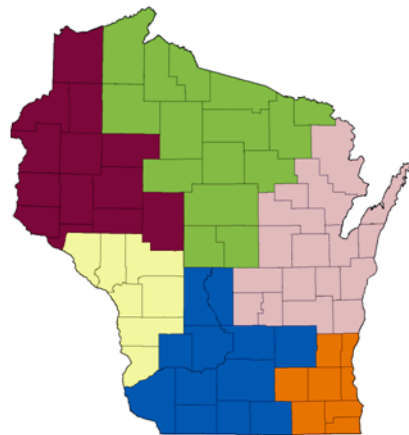

- how to develop programs and evaluate outcomes for maternal and child health & nutrition.

Estimated time: 1 hour.

Course II (1016118): Services to Prevent & Control Communicable Disease

- communicable disease reporting, control, and case management resources
- safe immunization practices
- legislative mandates
- epidemiologic investigations
- emergency preparedness planning and response

Estimated time: 2 hours.

Course V (1016121): Human Health Hazards and Environmental Health

- basic principles of environmental health
- resources available at the local, state, and national levels
- public health nurse's role and skills needed when performing environmental health related activities.

Estimate time: 1 hour.